

What if our welcome to lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender people sparked a renewal of our entire community's faith life?

The Building an Inclusive Church trainings help you design and implement a process for your congregation to publicly and intentionally welcome people of all gender identities and sexual orientations. Building an Inclusive Church equips you with ways to create dialogue, deepening relationships throughout the congregation rather than sparking debate and division.

Many of the tools you will learn come from faith-based relational organizing, such as the one-to-one visit and strategic storytelling. Grounded in scripture and discipleship, this training allows you to explore your own Christian call to hospitality and evangelism.

You will have opportunities to engage through a mix of lecture, hands-on practice, and small group discussion. Many of the tools you will learn come from faith-based community organizing, such as the one-to-one visit and strategic storytelling. Grounded in scripture and discipleship, this training allows you to explore your own Christian call to hospitality and evangelism.

If you are currently in a welcoming process, if you are thinking about starting a welcoming process, or if you fear what would happen if you began openly discussing a welcome to lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people, then this training is for you!

For more information and a full schedule of trainings nationwide, visit:
www.WelcomingResources.org/CommunityOrg

